

JARED JENICEK

REAL STRATEGIST,
REAL ESTATE AGENT

Jared Jenicek is a key member of Real Strategy's team. In his day to day, he provides invaluable advice to tenants relating to the best use of workspace and the optimization of financial resources allocated to it. Jared's biggest drivers include building great relationships with people and helping organizations craft sustainable workspace and leasing strategies.

Fluently bilingual in French and English, he completed his Bachelor of Commerce (Hons.) at the University of Ottawa and graduated Cum Laude. He displays an unparalleled work ethic when it comes to ensuring his clients receive the highest level of care. When not disrupting the status quo in the commercial real estate world, Jared can be found bouncing in a gymnastics gym and refereeing community soccer games.
